Defendant.)

This matter is before the court on the motion for an extension of time by defendant James Tyrell Dortch (Dortch) (Filing No. 12). Dortch seeks and additional three days in which to file pretrial motions in accordance with the progression order (Filing No. 7). Dortch's counsel represents that government's counsel has no objection to the motion. Upon consideration, the motion will be granted.

IT IS ORDERED:

Defendant Dortch's motion for an extension of time (Filing No. 12) is granted. Dortch is given until on or before April 4, 2008, in which to file pretrial motions pursuant to the progression order. The ends of justice have been served by granting such motion and outweigh the interests of the public and the defendant in a speedy trial. The additional time arising as a result of the granting of the motion, i.e., the time between April 1, 2008 and April 4, 2008, shall be deemed excludable time in any computation of time under the requirement of the Speedy Trial Act for the reason defendant's counsel requires additional time to adequately prepare the case, taking into consideration due diligence of counsel, and the novelty and complexity of this case. The failure to grant the additional time might result in a miscarriage of justice. 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(8)(A) & (B).

DATED this 1st day of April, 2008.
